MEET YOUR TEAM OF EXPERTS

Sue Phillips, born and raised in South Africa, has become a recognized International Fragrance Expert, and has held senior corporate positions at Elizabeth Arden, Burberry's, Lancôme, Paris. In addition, as Vice President of Fragrance Marketing for Tiffany & Co., Sue developed and launched the iconic first Women's fragrance TIFFANY fragrance for their 150th Anniversary and developed TIFFANY FOR MEN. Sue is the author of "The Power of Perfume" www.thepowerofperfume.com and has written her second book about helping hundreds of sufferers from Covid who lost their Sense of Smell and had Anosmia.

Sue had first visited NY for the bicentennial celebrations in 1976 and fell in love with NY. She then came to NY to escape the apartheid regime in South Africa, to pursue a singing and acting career in her beloved New York. However, with thousands of 'out of work' actors in NY, and without a green-card, Phillips soon realized that her love of fragrance and being in the Fashion capital of the world, was a path she wanted to choose. Sue became a recognized fragrance 'aficionado' and has had a great career in the fragrance industry. After her daughter was born, she left Tiffany to start her business, SCENTERPRISES. She launched fragrance brands and initiatives for companies such as Avon, Banana Republic Home, Bath & Body Works Lancaster, Trish McEvoy, Origins and many others. As Adjunct Professor at the Fashion Institute of Technology, Sue Phillips taught the Cosmetics and Fragrance Marketing course in New York City for five years.

Sue formed her company SCENTERPRISES in 1992 and presents unique Custom Perfume Events and offers seminars & workshops to create Signature Scents for Bridal Events, Corporate Team-building, Customer appreciation events - for all occasions. These are fun, interactive, innovative, informative and creative 'experiences'. As Spokesperson for P&G's DOWNY INFUSIONS fragranced fabric softener products, she appeared on many TV programs discussing the magic and mystery of Fragrance and the growing trend of Custom Scents. Sue showcases fragrance in presentation topics such as: The Power of Olfaction, Fragrance & Fashion, The Accessory of Fragrance, A Scentsational Dining Experience in which she celebrates the senses, and many more. ## MEET YOUR TEAM OF EXPERTS

Heather Reilly Hiemstra - Plant Medicine Educator · Endocannabinoid System Specialist · Menopause Specialist · Founder, Rockstar Blends

In 2006, Heather was diagnosed with colon cancer at 36. Surgeons removed a fist-sized tumor and 21 centimeters of her colon. She was nursing a nine-month-old. And she said no to chemotherapy.

What happened next changed everything — not just for her, but for everyone she's helped since.

Heather's refusal to destroy her immune system — and her infant son's — sent her deep into the science of how the body actually heals itself. What she found was the Endocannabinoid System — the body's master regulatory network, governing sleep, mood, pain, immunity, libido, and longevity — and a near-total absence of mainstream guidance on how to nourish it. What nobody talks about: a well-nourished ECS also keeps your skin luminous and your joints supple in ways that no serum or supplement has ever done for her. People ask Heather her age. She tells them. The room always reacts.

She spent the years that followed doing what the music industry trained her to do: finding the real thing before anyone else was paying attention. As an A&R rep for Island Records in the 90s, her job was to cut through the noise and find what was genuinely extraordinary. She brought that same instinct to plant medicine, to endocannabinoid science, and ultimately to formulating the 100% topical botanical formulas that became Rockstar Blends.

 www.rockstarblends.com

Today, Heather teaches something most people have never been offered: a practical, personalized roadmap for activating and nourishing your own ECS — without drugs, without getting high, and without surrendering your agency to a system that wasn't designed with your longevity in mind. For those who want to go deeper, she offers a Master Class that takes students through exactly how to do this for themselves. She calls it tuning your own soundboard. When your ECS is nourished, your body finds its own balance. Sleep deepens. Pain quiets. Mood lifts. Libido returns. The body you thought you'd lost comes back online.

Audiences leave Heather's talks with something rare: a framework they can actually use, grounded in science, translated by someone who found the frequencies that work, tuned them by hand, and has been playing them ever since.

OPTIONAL ADD ON - EXCLUSIVE CURATED WORKSHOPS WITH HEATHER REILLY HIEMSTRA WHERE YOU WILL ACTIVATE AND NOURISH YOUR OWN ECS - ENDOCANNABINOID SYSTEM - NATURALLY!

Workshop details and registration will be released by May 14, 2026 and will be offered first to guests already booked on cruise! Very limited space!

Suzette Jones is a serial entrepreneur, creative, and expert in using change as the catalyst for intentional growth and wellness. After decades of building businesses across industries, she redesigned her life - choosing alignment over pressure. That decision led to late-in-life love, the creation of a commercial flower farm and the development of Charmed Valley Beauty, a flower-based, global skincare line. As a sought-after speaker, she shares her story to help individuals see change as a powerful path to fulfillment and growth at every stage of life.

"In 2015, I was in the midst of growing yet another startup company, frazzled with juggling life as a single mom and nervously eyeing my upcoming, half-century mark birthday. I took an honest inventory of my life and realized that it didn't look like my definition of a good life. Some adjustments were needed. So... I made the conscious decision to rebuild my life around the things that truly bring me joy - and to remove the things that didn't. Within a few months of turning fifty, I met and married my true love ditched the highstress media company I had started and began building a life that gave space for my real priorities: time with loved ones, time in nature, time to learn and time to create. Developing my summer home, Charmed Valley Farm, became part of this plan. I set out to create a commercial flower farm - and I ended up recreating ME - and SO MUCH MORE!"

 www.charmedvalleyfarm.com

"Being immersed in nature ignited my curiosity. I discovered that flowers don't just look pretty, they possess incredible powers and they teach us valuable lessons about change, growth and the power of supporting beauty."

OPTIONAL ADD ON - CHARMED VALLEY BEAUTY FOUNDER SUZETTE JONES WILL LEAD YOU THROUGH A HANDS-ON FLOWER - POWERED FACIAL EXPERIENCE YOU CAN EASILY RECREATE AT HOME!

Workshop details and registration will be released by May 14, 2026 and will be offered first to guests already booked on cruise! Very limited space!

After the military, our careers in the airline industry and security and real estate didn't quell that inquisitive travel bug and in fact pushed us farther into other destinations. With all that travel and our combined destinations, RGE Travels literally has circled the globe to bring this excitement to your travels.
