Donna Presley, is an American author, speaker, and entertainer. She is best known as the first cousin of Elvis Presley—her mother, Nash Presley Pritchett was the youngest sister of Elvis's father, Vernon Presley. Donna's life has been deeply intertwined with the Presley family legacy. From the age of ten, she spent her summers at Graceland, and at seventeen, her family moved to the Circle G Ranch in Mississippi, where her father, Earl, worked for Elvis. After the ranch was sold, the family relocated to Graceland, residing there until it opened to the public in 1982.

Professionally, Donna contributed to the Presley legacy by working in the Graceland office alongside her cousin Patsy, handling fan correspondence until 1982. She has co-authored four books, including "Elvis, Precious Memories" and "Precious Family Memories of Elvis", offering personal insights into Elvis's life and their family's history. Beyond writing, Donna is an active speaker and performer, alongside original members of the TCB Band sharing stories and songs that celebrate Elvis's memory.

She has been involved in charitable initiatives supporting organizations like St. Jude Children's Hospital and the Elvis Presley Trauma Center. and is currently is on the Board of 3 Non Profits (Anthem , Choosing to Live and Mississippi Music Foundation).

CRUISE WITH A CAUSE

Elvis Presley: A Legacy of Generosity and Compassion

While Elvis Presley is best remembered as the King of Rock and Roll, his enduring legacy goes far beyond music. Throughout his life and career, Elvis was known for his extraordinary generosity, often giving selflessly to individuals and organizations in need. From large donations to quiet acts of kindness, his philanthropic spirit continues to inspire fans around the world.

A Heart for His Community

Elvis's generosity was especially evident in his hometown of Memphis, where he regularly donated to more than 50 local charities each year. Organizations like the YMCA, Le Bonheur Children's Medical Center, and Goodwill Industries benefitted from his consistent support, each receiving donations of $1,000 or more annually. His connection to the community was not just symbolic—it was personal.

Supporting National Causes

Beyond Memphis, Elvis extended his reach to national and international charities. He was a strong supporter of institutions such as St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital, the March of Dimes, and the Braille Institute of America. In Hawaii, he helped raise funds for the Kui Lee Cancer Fund, demonstrating his compassion for people from all walks of life.

Acts of Personal Kindness

Perhaps most touching were Elvis's personal acts of kindness. He quietly covered medical bills for strangers, including surgery for a boy who was going blind. He also paid college tuition for a young Black girl whose family couldn't afford it. These were not publicity stunts—many of these stories came to light only after his passing, often shared by the recipients or close associates.

Giving in Secret

Elvis often insisted that his contributions remain anonymous. He believed in helping others without seeking recognition, which is why so many of his charitable acts flew under the radar during his lifetime. His humility and desire to make a difference, not headlines, defined the way he gave back.

A Legacy Continued

Today, Elvis's legacy of giving lives on through his family and devoted fans. We're honored to welcome Donna Presley—Elvis's cousin and our special guest—as she continues this tradition of compassion. In keeping with Elvis's spirit of generosity, a donation will be made to Joe DiMaggio Children's Hospital, funded by the kind contributions of participants who have chosen to cruise with us. Together, we keep his legacy alive—not just through music, but through kindness.
